A Joint Conference

This year, we have brought together the Sacred Space and Between the Worlds conferences into a joint event. In 2015, the two organizations first presented a successful collaborative conference, and we look forward to doing so again. As Contemporary Paganism matures, we hope to provide a model for ways in which organizations can look for synergies and undertake cooperative initiatives. Sacred Space and Between the Worlds are both based in the Mid-Atlantic region and are geared toward intermediate to advanced practitioners.

As an annual conference, Sacred Space fosters a strong sense of community among those who regularly attend. The mission of Sacred Space includes supporting the continuing growth of intermediate and advanced practitioners, providing opportunities for regional practitioners to develop as teachers, and bringing together people with similar interests and expertise across traditions to know and work with each other. Financially, the only goal of the Sacred Space Conference is to ensure that the conference is on sound financial footing so that its future can be ensured.

The Between the Worlds Conference serves a similar audience but is offered at particular intervals aligned with specific astrological events. It always includes a main ritual that is designed to address an important magical need, and the panel sessions also discuss significant and timely topics. Financially, the Between the Worlds Conference is a fundraiser for the New Alexandrian Library—an important component of Pagan infrastructure.

We hope that you will enjoy this year's joint conference and that it will aid and enhance your own spiritual journey.

About Our Organizations

The Assembly of the Sacred Wheel

The Assembly of the Sacred Wheel is a legally recognized Wiccan nonprofit religious organization based in the Mid-Atlantic region. The Assembly practices a syncretic form of Wicca that draws inspiration from Astrology, Qabala, the Western magickal tradition, and the folk religions of Europe. The Assembly's founding coven, Keepers of the Holly Chalice, began its life in February 1984. The Assembly was incorporated in the state of Delaware in 1993 and was granted 501(c) (3) status in 1995. The Assembly currently consists of 14 covens.

Sacred Space Foundation

The Sacred Space Conference is the premier annual esoteric conference on the East Coast for intermediate to advanced practitioners. Meeting in the Spring in the Washington, D.C.–Baltimore area, each year our featured teachers and a host of highly qualified regional teachers offer a wide variety of workshops and rituals developed for a more advanced audience. Our attendees tell us that they are particularly grateful for the opportunity to pursue their continuous development in the company of their peers across many magickal traditions.

General Conference Information

Theoxenia and Philoxenia

During the opening and closing rituals, the conference and hotel are placed under the Divine Laws of Hospitality for Gods and Spirits and for Humans. The rules of Haven prohibit harm and call upon all beings to act in friendship with all others who share this space, including other guests and hotel employees. Please be mindful of what this means and what we are building together throughout this time.

Peace to all those who enter here; joy to those who depart!

Main Ritual

Each of the Between the Worlds conferences has included a powerful and elaborate Main Ritual. This year, the Main Ritual will be held on Friday evening. Afterward, complimentary snacks and refreshments will be offered in the hall outside to help with grounding. A 30-minute class with a pathworking to prepare for the Main Ritual is offered at multiple times on Thursday and Friday. If you plan to attend the Main Ritual, please attend one of these classes. Check the schedule for times and locations. If you have ritual garb, you are encouraged to wear it and no particular colors are suggested. Street clothes are fine as well. A copies of the ritual are at the registration table.

Conference Policies

- Respecting privacy: Please note that some attendees choose not share their interest in spiritual topics and/or their spiritual identity with the wider world. Be aware of this as you post, talk, chat, text, and tweet.
- Photos and recordings: Please ask permission of everyone included before you take a photo or make a recording. (See above re: privacy.)
- If you need help during the conference, please go to the Registration Desk.
- Please wear your name badge during sessions and events.
- Please be on time, especially to rituals. Some rituals are limited in size.
Once the door is closed for a ritual, please do not enter.
- Please recycle your badge holder when you leave the conference by leaving it at the Registration Desk.

Opening Reception

An opening reception on Thursday will be sponsored by the publishing house Llewellyn Worldwide. Refreshments and hors d'oeuvres will be offered.

Shopping

We are pleased to offer an array of shopping opportunities, including books and media by our teachers. All shopping is in Salons B–F.

Be Healed!

The Sacred Space Healers are back and are located in the Belmont and Derby Rooms. Stop by and get an appointment.

Food

The Cinnamon Tree Restaurant is in the hotel, as is Café 245 and the Polo Lounge and Bar. All are located on the lobby level. There is also vending in the hotel. In addition, many eateries are within 10 minutes of the hotel, mostly directly off Shawan Road and in Shawan Plaza. Ask at the concierge desk for directions.

Self-Care

Events like Between the Worlds/Sacred Space can be surprisingly taxing. Please be sure to drink what you think is sufficient water, and then drink some more. Make sure to get adequate rest, eat, and pay attention to all of your bodies.

Honoring Boundaries

As a general rule, those who attend Sacred Space and Between the Worlds like to express their open, welcoming natures through physical affection. Let's face it, most Pagans are big huggers, and that is a wonderful thing. However, we need to be aware that we all have different histories, levels of comfort with physicality, and sensitivity to overload, especially when the psychic senses are so strongly activated. Please be sure your hug is welcomed. Physical touch can be upsetting to those who struggle with post-traumatic stress disorder.

Cell Phone Use

Please be mindful of those around you when talking on your phone. Do not use your phone during a ritual or class. Silence or turn off your phone before entering a classroom or ritual space. If you must talk on your phone, be considerate of others and do so outside of the room where a class or ritual is taking place. Please take care to hold phone conversations in an area where you will not disturb others.

Conference Evaluation

We take your feedback seriously! Please either fill out a paper form (turn in at the registration desk) or fill out our online survey at tinyurl.com/SSFeval

The board uses your feedback to improve the conference.

Sacred Space March 27-31 2024

At Conference Registration for Sacred Space 2024—Just $125

We feel so blessed that we could finally come back together as a community and are so happy you are with us! We hope that you join us April 6-9, 2024 for our next Sacred Space Conference, here at the Delta Hunt Valley. We will return with more exciting classes and rituals for intermediate to advanced practitioners. If you are on Facebook or Instagram, please follow us for the latest news and consult our website, sacredspacefoundation.org.

Register for 2024 at the Registration Desk or using this QR Code. This is our cheapest rate.

COVID Policies

To ensure that our attendees have the best possible experience at all levels, the following are the COVID-19 safety precautions set in place by the joint organizations of the board of the Sacred Space Foundation and the Between the Worlds Conference.

We encourage attendees to be vaccinated and boosted to the level that they are medically able. You will have the option of applying a sticker (Red-Yellow-Green) on your name badge indicating the level of personal contact you are comfortable with. If you wish to wear a mask, for whatever reason, please feel free to do so. If others are wearing masks around you, please be mindful that they may also need more social distancing, especially if you are unmasked. We will have extra masks at the registration table.

Please be assured that we will continue to monitor and adhere to the recommendations of the CDC and appreciate your understanding that we may find it necessary to make changes to these policies in accord with those recommendations outlined at the time of the conference.

Thank you all for respecting the boundaries and concerns of fellow attendees and contributing to a safe and healthy environment for our sacred community and their families.

The Gala & Silent Auction

The Saturday evening Gala is a fundraiser event to benefit the New Alexandrian Library. The Gala always been a great opportunity to create new friendships, renew old friendships, and let your hair down with like-minded people. The $25 Gala ticket includes sumptuous snacks, non-alcoholic beverages, a performance and dancing. A cash bar will also be available. Tickets can be purchased in advance or at the door. The Gala is open to non-conference attendees.

The Auction

There is a silent auction and a mercifully brief live auction to raise funds for the New Alexandrian Library near the end of the night. The bidding happens at the Gala.

What To Wear?

We encourage you to dress up from any time period or place, real...or imagined. Victorian, steampunk, goth, cirque noir, renfaire, and Fae are among the many options for the night. If that doesn't work then go elegant, formal wear, or leather and lace, or ?. You are a one of the stars of the event and what you wear contributes to the mood for all. Even if you don't have the time or interest to create or buy fanciful garb, we bet that you have some thing to wear that makes you look amazing.

The Band: Frenchy and the Punk

Frenchy and the Punk is French-born singer and percussionist Samantha Stephenson and American Hardcore Punk veteran guitarist, bassist and drummer Scott Helland. Their music is flavored with an alternative post-punk vibe and intertwined with dark pop and modern cabaret elements.

Reminding one generation of Grace Slick and another of Siouxsie Sioux, Stephenson sings in both English and French with a powerful yet graceful Gothic heft. Helland, a former bass player from the legendary Massachusetts hardcore bands Deep Wound (with J Mascis and Lou Barlow of Dinosaur jr) and Outpatients, propels this dynamic duo's sound with looped rhythms and melodic Rock, Surf and Spanish style electro-acoustic guitar licks.
<https://frenchyandthepunk.com>

Guitar Army of One

Scott Helland's Guitar Army of One creates an amalgamation of cinematic music, punk, surf, spy noir and Spanish guitar styles all played on an acoustic electric hybrid Godin guitar. This veteran of the Massachusetts punk scene layers and live-loops rhythms and melodies with driving beats to create a refreshing take on instrumental guitar music.

The Astrology For The Conference

The overall theme for this conference is opening the road and unlocking the door to a better future. The USA's Pluto Return and Chiron Return are at hand. Pluto returning to the same position it was then begins a new cycle of death and rebirth. Pluto's orbit takes about 248 years so what is done in the span from 2022-2024 sets the pattern for another 248 years. The Chiron Return for a nation is a call for a soul searching inventory for truth and deep healing of old wounds. If collectively we work our way through this passage, then idealism and the will to build a better world can hold sway.

Pluto entered Aquarius on March 23, 2023 and then will retrograde back into Capricorn twice (June 2023 & September 2024) weaving back and forth before progressing in Aquarius for roughly 20 years. Pay attention to how power structures in the world and within yourself are affected by Pluto's last steps in Capricorn. This knowledge is the key to using the next 20 years in Aquarius to gain rather than lose freedom and to regain or to brighten your unique light.

The Main Ritual on Friday night is designed to prepare and empower you during this time of great change.

Another cycle is also at play. On December 21, 2020. Jupiter – Saturn conjuncted at 0° Aquarius. Just shy of every 20 years there is a conjunction between Jupiter and Saturn that is significant, but usually not a world changing event. These conjunctions cycle through the Four Elements over the course of about 800 years. Each Element cycle takes about 200 years to complete. What this also means is that we are nearing the end of a cultural cycle that started in the 1840s.

THE WORLD IS CHANGING

ARE YOU READY FOR THE CHALLENGE?

You may be aware of the 7.1 earthquake that hit Ridgecrest in July. The epicenter was at the military base where I work. You had jumped through hoops to be sure that I was able to take the military emphasis courses. Those classes paid off in a big way for those in my world struggling with PTSD and those of us in fight, flight or freeze mode after the quakes. (SH)

Thank you for this amazing opportunity to help our community build a thriving, strong, and enthusiastic culture of consent. My classmates and I feel much more able to go forwards in writing policy, offering workshops, and even shifting how we change intense rituals. Even when accusations may hit our community, I hope we will be better equipped to deal with them, while caring for the victims and protecting ourselves from a schism. (CC)

I graduated magna cum laude as a religious studies major. I am very grateful to say that I know what a really good academic experience is. It is just an incredibly pleasant surprise that I found an institution which is more than meeting my needs and desires as a seminarian. (VH)

Panels

Long Term Magical Workings: How and Why to Craft Them

The Alliance has been engaged in a magical working for more than fifteen years. Between the Worlds main rituals all weave together into one, contiguous whole. These are just two examples of groups working long term magic toward a purpose. When are long term workings desirable? Why? How do we initiate them? Come discuss theories and strategies with Michael, Thorn, and Jim. Topics include the care and feeding of long term work. The ups and downs of collective magic. Building trust. Keeping communication clear. Periodically testing your operation. Refocusing and regrouping. Shifting course. Following the flow of the work. Opening and closing the pattern when it's time.

—Aeptha, Thorn T. Coyle, James Dickinson, & Michael G. Smith

Working With The Spirits Panel

A discussion of personal experiences with Spirits, God/dess/es, Angels, Orishas, and the like. The value, challenges, and risks of work with the spirits will be considered. Comparisons, contrasts, and similarities between experiences with different types of beings will be explored as well.

—Aeptha, Jesse Hathaway Diaz, Diana Paxson

The Wheel Of Changes: The Coming Decades Panel

An exploration of long term cycles from the perspective of Astrology, the Etruscan concept known as the saeculum, and various sociological and traditional systems. There will be a special focus on the next few decades in the United States and what these cycles indicate.

—Panel: Jo Graham, Diotima, & Maria Wander

Keeping It New In The New Aeon Panel

Magical, fraternal societies like the Ordo Templi Orientis (O.T.O.) and others are often associated with complex ceremonies lead by older, wizard-like figures under the auspices of total secrecy. But the reality of magical societies is far more accessible, approachable, and lively than many realize. In this panel, several members of William Blake Lodge O.T.O. will discuss what modern fraternal magical orders are like, what they do, and how they're relevant to modern day magic-workers. From the intersections of ceremonial magic and witchcraft to the role that marginalized voices play in these communities, and more, our guests will bring it all to the table and part some of the mists of uncertainty that shroud these beautiful traditions.

—Panel: Stephanie Olmstead-Dean, David Salisbury, & BJ Swain

Book Publishing Panel and Q&A Panel

Thinking of getting published? Don't miss this discussion! Get all your questions answered, including: where and how to submit your proposal, the timeline and the process, the money question, the agent question, covers and titles, working the publicity machine, and much more. Well-known authors such as Devin Hunter, Thorn Mooney, Jhenah Telyndru, and Laura Tempest Zakroff will give you the inside look from the author's perspective, while Heather Greene from Llewellyn Worldwide will provide information on acquisitions, editing, marketing, and distribution from the perspective of a mid-sized publisher.

Inclusion vs. Affirmation: Nonbinary, Genderqueer, and Transgender Identities in Our Communities Panel

Pagan, polytheist, and magickal communities naturally draw many seekers from the fringes of society, including people who are nonbinary, genderqueer, agender, and transgender. How can communities co-create spaces that are not just welcoming, but affirming, of non-cisgender people? Panelists will discuss ways in which their gender identity interacts with their magickal work, and practical suggestions for magickal communities to think "beyond the binary" in symbols, ritual, and structure.

—Panel moderated by: Enfys Book. Panel: Tamara Curry, Richard A. Davis, Raven Eggewater

Death Midwifery Panel

The topics of "a good death," final preparations, respect for our religions, and the handling of the deceased are subjects that come up frequently in Pagan circles, particularly as more of our population ages. In this panel discussion, we will discuss Death Midwifery and other topics related to end-of-life planning. Featured topics will be document preparation, family and hospital interaction, counseling, funeral planning, and more.

—Panel Moderated by: Robert L. Schreier. Panel: Maggie Beaumont, Sabrina Mari, Larry Goble, Jr., Jessica Shoemaker, Stacey Stewart, and Ralph Young

New Magical Technology for Political Magic: Order of the Gorgon Shield

Our democracy, society and the world itself are in peril and many of us can see the dangers ahead. Prior to the last elections, a small group began meeting regularly to develop new technologies and magical interventions. Together we are doing magical work to strengthen the integrity of our democracy from the advance of authoritarianism and protect our communities. These technologies have now been field-tested and used. This session will include information on how to organize group creative process, a discussion of the types of magic we are finding useful for the purposes of this type of work, and we will share some of the specific technologies that can be used by others.

—Panel Members: Linda Bourdet, Karen Bruhin, Ivo Dominguez Jr., Haeleron, Gwendolyn Reece, Jae Sea, Peg Wilsbach

Classes And Rituals Listed By Presenter

Aeptha (BTW)

A Solar Mystery (Ritual)

The qualities and powers associated with the sun are exceedingly extensive. In this ecstatic and transformative ritual, we will be drawn first upon the role of the sun as a mediator to bring together divergent elements within ourselves. Through this ritual act of harmonization, we will open the threshold beyond the world of appearances. It is in this numinous space we draw upon the spiritual sun which awakens the transcendent intelligence. In the space of intuition and mystical awareness guidance, insight and inspiration may be received. We will return to the originating principle of harmonizing in order to integrate and assimilate this newfound level of awareness. Ritual garb in accordance with your tradition is recommended but not required.

The Fifth Elementals: The Nagas

(with Ivo Dominguez, Jr)

The focus of this class is an introduction to the Fifth Elementals. Over the years, the presenters' interactions with these beings have provided them with a nuanced understanding of their function, range and depth. The Fifth Elementals can be thought of as the being composed of ether, spirit, life force, or a braiding together of the Four classically known Elementals. We will be sharing our accumulated knowledge of these beings in the lecture portion of our time together. Many of us have a working experience of the Four Elementals; however, the Fifth Elementals may remain a construct rather than a perceived experience making it difficult to connect and identify them. In order to breach this gap in understanding, we will have an actual encounter with the Fifth Elemental beings in the experiential portion of the class.

Clio Ajana (BTW)

Dionysian Meditative Ritual

With the help of Lord Dionysus, we journey through the cavity of elimination, illumination and purification. We recognize the infections and infestations in our lives as we use the transformative power of purification through elimination. Through this meditative ritual, we throw off the dregs and illnesses that linger from a prolonged winter.

Friendship In Difficult Times

As Pagans, Heathens, and Polytheists, we pride ourselves on our openness and ability to accept anyone. We are often the folk who embrace those who feel rejected by other communities or religious traditions. In our circles, covens, groves, kindreds, and groups, we socialize and form deep bonds with each other. Now, the on-going 2020 pandemic has tested the boundaries of these close connections. As we start 2023, the social climate is overwhelmingly political. When we lose friends to politics or medical stances, we experience a form of grief. We are living in a time of open wounds where just getting close to the topic can hurt. Join us for a candid discussion about managing friendships during these difficult times. A waning moon cycle healing work will conclude the workshop.

Mat Auryn (BTW)

Mind Magick

Magick doesn't necessarily require any physical tools, rituals, or spells to work. Sometimes we don't have access to these things when we need to work magick. Luckily, magick can be employed anywhere and at any time, without anyone even knowing you're performing magick. In this workshop, Mat Auryn will be sharing the keys to altering reality to conform to your will by employing simple occult and metaphysical techniques discussed in his book Psychic Witch (Llewellyn).

Triple Soul of the Witch

Many mystical and religious traditions around the world have viewed the soul as not a single substance but having multiple parts, most commonly three. Witchcraft is no exception, in this engaging workshop Mat Auryn will teach about the three souls as explained in his book Psychic Witch (Llewellyn). You will learn how to connect with, feed, and strengthen each of the three souls while also learning how to work through each of the soul's challenges. You will also learn how each soul gives you a different perspective in psychism and realm of influence within magickal workings.

Amy Blackthorn (SSF)

Advanced Self Care: Battling Burnout for Pagans And Leadership

The more tumultuous the times, the more our friends, family and other practitioners need us. And the more likely that we are stretching ourselves too thin. If the solution were as simple as a bubble bath or a glass of mead, we'd have done that by now. Join folk herbalist and aromatherapist Amy Blackthorn in looking at the root of the issue and how strategies for self care used by our non-Pagan friends may not be appropriate. How the needs of the priesthood differ from solitary practitioners as well as crafting solutions that work for the long haul with magical squares, astrological petitions and more.

Scion of Scent- Aromatic talismans and sigils

Witches have worked with aromatic plants since time immemorial. In this offering by aromatherapist and author of 'Blackthorn's Botanical Magic,' we will journey together to design aromatic talismans combining magical properties, musical associations, and astrological correspondences. Learn to make a scent sigil and how to work with the thoughtforms of these intentions in ritual.

Qabala's Queer Connections

Qabala has historically been taught from a very cisgender, heteronormative, patriarchal perspective, but it's actually a profoundly queer magickal tool. This workshop will look at each of the ten Sephiroth through a queer lens and relate them to life experiences many queer people share in common. At the end of the workshop, we will do a group meditation and journaling exercise to reconnect with our deeper selves and claim our unique power and perspective through the Tree of Life.

Falcons & Gyphons: On Using Orders Within Groups

The Assembly of the Sacred Wheel currently has two Orders, the Falcons and the Gryphons in addition to its covens. The Falcons are seers and diviners, and the Gryphons are guardians and clearers of toxic energy. They work separately and together. Learn how these magical Orders are structured and enrich our community. The Orders are individuals collected from our covens for their gifts and trained with highly specific skills. They are further trained in synchronicity and cooperation with each other. In theory and in practice, these subsets can be a powerful asset to a group providing service in extraordinary situations. This may be a model your group or community may wish to explore.

The Warrior's Heart: Showing Up for What We Love

We live in turbulent times that require a lot of us. Sometimes we feel angry, defeated, or exhausted. Sometimes we catch a glimmering of hope. We want to help. We want to protect and defend our families, our friends, our communities, this planet, and the sacredness of ocean, sky, and soil. What do we do? We open our hearts. We invoke our will. We call upon our commitments to the turning earth. Come talk about what is important to you, right here, right now. Move through the pentacle from Commitment, to Honor, to Truth, to Strength, to Compassion. Whether you are a parent, teacher, healer, creative, activist, or all of the above, invoke your warrior's heart. It is time. (Note: previous versions of this workshop included a martial arts component. This one does not.)

Standing In Tiphereth: A Crossroads for Our Times (With Ritual)

We are change, living in the midst of change. Approach the crossroads of the Tree That Spans Worlds. Draw down the light for a planet in need. Stand or sit fully in yourself, at the nexus point, and allow the powers of love, potential, potency, and hope to move through you. Together, we will align ourselves, body, heart, and souls. We will call to the power of Beauty and invoke the worlds to come. We will lift each other up. We will lift the world into the possibility of a new time. This concentrated magical working will require your full presence. Come as you are.

Contacted Traditions: Sponsors, Overshadowing, and Indwelling

What does it mean to have a "contacted" tradition? What are these beings? How do they interact? What is their purpose? Why does it matter? During the change of the ages, the opportunity for contact and the anchoring of these beings in our space and time has increased. We will discuss the nature of the beings, the potential forms of contact, the limits and benefits, and how members of contacted traditions might interact with their contact. It is a relatively rare occurrence, but when it happens, it matters.

The Consequences of Magickal Action: Aftercare and Healing

This workshop will explore methods to deal with bad reactions or injuries sustained in ritual, when magical work sours, or in outright attacks. Quick and simple diagnostics will be presented to choose a response, if one is needed. The middle- and long-term impact of magickal action will also be addressed so you can remain healthy and strong for more years. Wear and tear ignored is often more damaging than injuries or acute situations. Rest, healing, and aftercare are the key to staying power for the long haul.

Designing Effective Rituals

The creation of new rituals that are safe, moving, and efficacious is both an art and a science. We will start with a quick listing of sources for inspiration, guidance, and power for the creation of rituals. In this workshop, several models for describing, testing, and balancing ritual outlines will be presented. Methods for dealing with small groups and large public rituals will also be shared. We will also talk about why rituals work and how they have the potential to touch and change us. The methods and paradigms offered will be applicable to a wide range of traditions.

Courage

Our dominant culture holds a false illusion, that to be courageous one must be visible, big, brave and bold as a roaring lion. Not all of us can embrace that image, finding instead that our courage lurks in the shadows, the courage of a small mouse scurrying across a field at night. Join us to explore what courage means to you in this experiential workshop. Using tools of sacred discussion, trance-work and spell-work we will explore courage as individuals and as a group, charging ourselves with the energy of courage to take back into the world with us.

This workshop will explore some of the history of wands, their uses in magical practice, types of wands and how the materials that we use in wands can impact their use in our magical practice. Shining Self, Arise: Beyond the Veils of Existence

Many Hermetic disciplines make use of the concept of layers of being, planes of existence, veils of the ancestors, the greater mysteries of the work and more. Among these disciplines the wisdom contained within the Hermetic Qabalah provides the Three Veils of Existence. Each comprises the blueprint of form and formlessness that catalyzes the creative impulse towards self-awareness, and ultimately manifestation. When applied to the personality and spiritual growth of the individual this realization becomes the out picturing of the Higher Self arising in all of its mystery, beauty and Divine nature. This workshop will begin with exploration of the Three Veils of Existence of the Qabalah and their correlates in other Hermetic disciplines. From this space of understanding and finding your point of resonance, we will delve more deeply into the energetic mechanisms that flow into the self-awareness of the polarized outpourings of force becoming form as they coalesce and transmute the individual as a Being of self-claimed power and justifiable mercy. It is from this nexus of liminal space that holds the patterning of creation's formless nature that the shining Self arises, the bodies of magick and Light awaken and we step into the mantle of our Divine birthrite. We will conclude the workshop with a specially crafted pathworking entering the veils and emerging cloaked in the beauty of our true nature of magick and light. Please note that prior knowledge of Qabalistic studies is not required. The material will be presented in a way that is accessible to all seekers.

The Alchemical Light of Qabalistic Healing for Mind, Body and Spirit

The study of Qabalah can be daunting in the sheer scope of depth and volume of information; the complexity of principles presented and the outdated concepts of gender, polarities and philosophies that are not always compatible with the modern perspective. And, knowing how to adapt and bring these concepts into practical and daily application can be the greatest and most daunting mystery of all. The truth is that we unconsciously apply these principles in all of our endeavors. So why not open to a greater and more inclusive perspective, that can be actively used as we continue to emerge from the pandemic and its variants, the dis-ease of humanity's challenges and the overall rawness of the world?

This workshop will offer rudimentary ways to apply the "Life" of the Hermetic Tree to our daily experience in a way that synthesizes the mystic and the mundane and that can specifically be applied towards a healing and regenerative practice. Discussion of correspondences including the Alchemical Elements, Color, Numbers, Astrological components, and more will provide the keys of connection for personal growth, adaptability and transformative change that will make the content easily accessible and relevant to any spiritual/magickal practice. Special attention will be given to the practical application of a Qabalistic blueprint to engage body, mind and Spirit in the process of health, self-renewal and energetic enlivening. Please note that prior knowledge of Qabalistic studies is not required. The material will be presented in a way that is accessible to all seekers.

Ritual: The Temple of Rebirth

What will you surrender to the Ancient One? What will you seek to restore the harmony of your Self in death and re-formation? Who will you become when form falls away? What greater knowledge of self will become the womb of your rebirth?

This ritual uses the structure of the Hermetic Qabalistic Tree of Life and the principles of death and rebirth as the underpinnings of transformation. We arise from the world of manifest form and enter the abode of Lilith, the Destroyer and the Creatrix. Having surrendered to the dismantling of form, we pass through the veil of illusion and seek the counsel and wisdom of Ma'at calling forth the balance of chaos and harmony. As the illusion of form falls away we come to stand within the Temple of Isis and receipt of the remembering of our divinity in light and shadow, form and formless. When all have found their path of return, we arise as a whole, fully integrated in all of our parts, Light and Shadow, using ecstatic energy and movement as the vehicle of manifestation and rebirth. Please bring a bottle of water to remain hydrated.

The Refined Seven-Fold Alignment: Technique for Co-Creating an Intentional Future

A response to the "Co-creative call to action for the restoration of wellbeing for Earth and her life". As magic workers, we must rise to a higher level of clarity, purpose, accountability and skills than many of our magical ancestors. The impact of our ever-expanding technological development on the current and future state of the planet's ecology is a growing concern. Those who devote their work to the elevation of human consciousness and the sacred guardianship of earth and her life must act with immediacy and impact. As embodied agents of the planet's "co-creative call" -we are conscious creators of our lives, our future and a new state of well being for our world. Orion will share and engage everyone in a potent Faery Seership technique and introducing us to the "Wisdom Keepers of the Underworld" as those who walk in Grace; the 7-fold Alignment for aligning to the 7 directions to attune to the forces that uphold and sustain us.

Healing and the River of Blood: Ancient Lore and a Healing Practice for Resolving Conflict on Both Sides of the Veil

We cannot curse the roots and bless the fruits. Much of the future of our species is contingent upon its relationship to its past. All of us (human and other) partake of a great stream of life called the River of Blood. Yet, sadly few of us have a living awareness of it and how to access, navigate and mediate it for the good of the past, present and future. In this workshop, Orion will discuss the nature of what he calls "life's undercurrent" and its influence on the quality and potentials of our current lives. This current is both a source of great nourishment, wisdom, power and support but also the origins of many subtle and overt paradoxes, and problems in our lives. We are the inheritors and sometimes the perpetrators of these qualities. To heal ourselves and our world, we must heal what ancient ancestors knew as the River of Blood.

Making the Darkness Conscious: Guising Through Shadow

Deep within our psyches dwell our shadows: repressed thoughts, emotions, behaviors and memories. These pieces of ourselves are pushed into the psychological closet for many reasons, but they don't stay hidden well. Our shadow behaviors – responses that are out of proportion, actions and words that are actively harmful to ourselves or others – are rooted in that shadowy realm. Reforging The Inner Self; Healing Traumatic Events

As we move through life, emotional trauma, abuse, and loss cause our inner selves to fracture. In this ritual, we identify a personal, traumatic event, and using the power of the astral forge, rebuild the inner self to bring separated parts of ourselves back together. The re-forging process involves travel to the Realm of Elemental Fire. The 5 elements of the body – earth, air, fire, water, and spirit, are aligned so they focus and work towards the same goal.

Reforging the Inner Self: Unlocking Ancestral Knowledge

We all carry hidden knowledge within us, expressing itself through our genetics. There is a theory that exposure to an event is enough to permanently change us. At one end of this theory is the observation of an event that causes an emotional reaction, leading to an active change in our behavior. At the other end of this theory is the observation of symbols or energy that causes a change in our evolutionary biology. What if you could tap into this stream of change that occurred in your ancestral lineage? In this workshop / ritual, we tap into our genetic ancestral knowledge, filter the experience to match our life's direction, and cause permanent change.

Roses strewn at midnight on the street corner, seven candles burned for the Queen of the Crossroads, the song hanging in the air as the spirit grabs her mount and the Lady enters amongst her devotees to hold court and advise, to heal and to curse, to spend time amongst the living. Tobacco fills the air, and she stays until dawn, those present saluting her for her wisdom, power, and presence. Salve Pomba Gira!

Queens and Whores, Murderers and Thieves, Witches and Sorcerers. These are the 'Good People' of Quimbanda, the spirits of earth and fire that stir lust and desire, grant luck and vengeance, and protect those who serve them. The males are collectively known as Exu, the female spirits collectively known as Pomba Gira. Quimbanda is a spiritual system born in and because of Brazil itself: a child of West African magic and world-view mixed with Indigenous plant and spirit lore and some glossings of European witchcraft and sorcery. Originally a possession cult focusing on spirit contact and pragmatic workings, it has become a complex system incorporated into Umbanda and some lineages of Candomble, as well as surviving as its own practice. Drawing from his knowledge and over a decade of experience as a Tata Quimbanda, Jesse Hathaway Diaz will explore the worldview and spirits of Quimbanda, with a special focus on the Pomba Giras, sharing their stories, songs, personalities, and affinities, and various ways of working with them. Pomba Gira is legion, her name an invocation in itself. She invites us to join her ranks, to recognize the power of choice in the fire that burns at the crossroads of each moment!

Dual-Faith Observance: Always Heresy, Never Blasphemy

The various streams of 'Traditional Witchcraft' often adhere to a concept of 'dual-faith observance' – a conception of multiple belief, where by the esoteric interpretation of one tradition allows for the praxis of another. Here we navigate a thin line between religion and spirituality, belief and faith, and modern conceptions of politics and Abrahamic cultural inheritance complicate it further. The religions of the right, expressed through orthodoxy, are practiced in tandem with the spiritualities of the left, expressed through heresy – but it beyond compartmentalization. This is not ignorance of, or even ignoring the discrepancies, it is an embracing of them. Can someone practice two seemingly conflicting traditions at once? Once denial is sidestepped, and heresy embraced, all manner of things can be achieved! Drawing upon a background in ritual theory and performance studies, and over two decades in the traditional craft community, Hathaway Diaz will explore theory and praxis both, giving examples from many streams of magical thought where power is embraced not only through societal and cultural acquiescence, but through the witch's cross-cultural universal drive: to obtain and maintain power and autonomy.

Doll Magick

Dolls. Not everyone is akin to having dolls do magickal work for them. Some people are terrified of dolls, but for those of us who are not, making a doll into a powerful ally, can be one the most rewarding magickal experiences, one can have.

Dolls have been used as powerful forms of magick since humans first crafted images into clay. Dolls can be made from porcelain, fabric, or clay. They can be hand stitched or made in a factory. They can be old dolls, antique dolls, or new dolls. They can represent protection, revenge, or love.

Your special doll might be found in a bin in a secondhand store, or on display in a vintage, antique shop. It seems for those of us who work with dolls, they arrive in our lives at their own time and speed, ready and willing to become a part of our magickal family.

In this workshop I'll discuss my relationship with dolls and how I use them as powerful juju to bring positive change into my life. I'll also introduce three of my most beloved dolls to the audience and discuss why they are important to me. If dollie magick isn't your thing, this may not be the workshop for you!

Hekataion: Protective Door Guardians of Hekate

Throughout the classical world, shrines and statues of Hekate were replaced by gateways; the gates of cities and temples. The Norse goddess Freyja ("the Lady") is best known as a goddess of love, but She is far more. A look at the lore reveals her as wealth-bringer and receiver of the slain, lady of the house, high priestess of the gods, and mistress of both positive magic and sorcery. Next to Odin, she is the "pushiest" of the gods and most popular among modern Heathens. As She was in the Viking Age, Freyja is the Lady of Life and all that keeps life going, and She is reaching out to us today.

Ancestors, Appropriation and Affinity: In Search of a Pagan Identity

For over two centuries, American ancestors have worked to expand and apply our ideals and understand what they truly mean. We need to honor heroes from all the ethnic groups that built this land. How can we develop a relationship based on spiritual affinity without misappropriation? How can we work with all the ancestors to make our country a place of liberty and justice for all?

Runes for Healing

The runes are much more than a tool for divination—they are a powerful tool for use in healing. In this session, we will discuss which runes might be used for which conditions and explore several ways to deliver them.

All Things Chiron Ritual

In ancient Greek mythology, Chiron was the first astrologer, shaman and healer, touching many heroes and other mythic characters and sending them on their journeys. In 1977, the planetoid Chiron was discovered among the outer planets, in Saturn & Uranus, heralding a New Age of healing modalities and a sea change of culture and energy. Our wide ranging discussion will start here, and end with a ritual to meet Chiron Himself. (ritual garb encouraged but not required. Doors will be closed for ritual.)

The Witch Tree

A common image in Witchcraft and Shamanism is the World Tree. Considered the Axis Mundi, the Pillar of the World, it has parallels with the heavenly ladder of Jacob, world mountain Meru, and the Egyptian Djed Pillar, or Spine of the Sacrificed God. Its most famous images is of the Norse Yggdrasil. The axis is a sign of stability upon which creation revolves. Go deeper into relationship with the Tree, learning the mysteries of feeding the tree and being fed by the tree. Understand how the spirit wells of each realm feed it. Read the sacred letters upon its leaves. Explore its relationship with the Serpent-Dragon of the World. Experience the Nine Waves of Creation that emanate from it throughout the cosmos. Know its various incarnations in the past ages. Understand the dangers to the tree, and how you can bring continuity to the turning universe.

Aquarius Rite: Bearing the Phoenix of Light

The work of Aquarius is the work of community, embracing both the paradigm shifting rebel and the spirit of social responsibility. Aquarius creates, kindles and stirs the cauldron of community for our service and evolution. Titled the Water Bearer, this air sign is often aligned with the image of the Eagle of Zeus, and the divine light bearers, Prometheus and Lumiel. In the Glastonbury Zodiac, Aquarius is presented as the Phoenix, the divine bird of fire and resurrection, bearing the New Aeon to the world. Through this sacred rite, bear the blessings of water, of air, and of fire to our community.

Wisdom of the Animals Ritual

What can we learn from settling into watchful stillness and listening to the voices of the animal spirits that live in our ecosystems? What wisdom can we glean from the smallest and most unlikely of creatures? In a world increasingly paved and tamed, humans have to go out of their way to establish relationships with non-human life and ways of being. In this ritual, we will journey in trance to connect with potential animal spirit allies and bring back their messages to our human community.

Heroes, Apotheosis and the Heroic

Path: The World Needs Us to be Heroes
Ancient Hellenic religion is full of heroes and holds out the possibility of apotheosis—that a human may transcend their current state and become a god. What does it mean to be a hero? What do the ancient sources tell us that might inform our developmental path? What can we glean about the process of becoming a god? Gwendolyn believes that we are being called upon to walk a heroic path in which we are striving for excellence and of benefit to more than just our near and dear. She is obviously not an enlightened being...but is really deeply interested in figuring out how to become one and believes that the Theoi are clear that what They want is for us to grow and transcend our limitations, becoming like Them.

Dissipating the Glamour that Mistakes Outrage for Action: A Ritual in Service of Society.

Glamour, in this sense, is a delusion that occurs at the level of being in which cognition is mixed with emotion—the main place where humanity tends to function. Because we are all part of group minds and group souls, glamour is highly contagious and can be extraordinarily detrimental. This ritual will work to dissipate one of the main glammers that is inhibiting our ability to function well as a society, namely the glamour that mistakes feeling outraged for action, effectively dissipating much of our collective energy that could be used to actually work to change the world. This glamour is pernicious and is intentionally fed by our media ecosystem. The group will be given the group ritual and a solitary variant and the way to modify the working for any glamour will be explained.

The Iron Pentacle

The Iron Pentacle is a tool for revolution, for yourself and the world around you. Through the five points of Sex, Pride, Self, Power, and Passion, we can unshackle our currents of personal power from the over-culture's grip. Running this power through the body can help you cultivate a greater sense of your true nature and bring about increased integrity and authenticity. In these trying times, this simple but powerful concept from the Feri Tradition could benefit the entire world. Bring water for yourself to sip during class.

Urglaawe 410: Die Deutsche Raane (The Pennsylvania Dutch Runes)

Pennsylvania Dutch magical and healing lore contains information about the complexities of the soul and what it is widely accepted that some runes have played a role in Pennsylvania Dutch symbols since well before the Migration to Pennsylvania, but the Deutsche Raane served a small segment of the Hexerei community as forms of divination and healing during the 20th Century. The runic system was one of the most difficult aspects of the Pennsylvania Dutch culture to research, but, after 14 years of interviews, investigations, and exploration, the rune set has been finalized and is ready for public consumption. The Hexerei community utilized some unique and peculiar methods of healing using runic energies, and the Urglaawe community has expanded the divinatory practices that are familiar to many of other Heathen traditions. In this presentation, we will introduce the runes, their associated elements, and their energetic charges. We will demonstrate how they may be used as a part of a traditional Hexerei healing session, and we will show some of our unique divinatory methods. With Stacey Stewart and Ralph Young.

Der Ziegdaag: Urglaawe Ritual (“Moving Day” in Pennsylvania Dutch) honoring change, transitions, trickster figures. “Der Ziegdaag,” or “moving day,” is when Pennsylvania Dutch tenant farmers move the whole family from one farm to another. The date of this typically was April 1 This was a big deal in the not-too-distant past as many families were doing this move simultaneously. In Urglaawe custom, the Ziegdaag ritual is about change or transformation in all aspects: the need for change, the fear of change, the agents of change, the trickster figures, the sagacious figures who solve problems, escape from traps, or change the world. Transitions are often painful and occasionally life-scarring. There is a grittiness to the Ziegdaag observance that should not be ignored. Whether one is facing a simple transition, such as the eager acceptance of a new job, or one more complex, such as embracing one's true gender identity, the emotions involved in decision-making and turning the thought into word and deed are often mixed. These are often the matters for which we turn to friends, ancestors/forebears, or deities for clarity or assistance. Come learn about the intricacies of this observance as we honor some of the shadier and shadowy figures of the Germanic pantheon.

Heathen Ethics, Then—and Now?

During the Viking Age, understandings of “right” and “wrong” were negotiated, lived out, and passed down in a society that was profoundly different from our own. Those differences can create confusion and misunderstanding when modern Heathens look to “the lore” for ethical guidance. In this class, we will analyze some of the unconscious assumptions we often make about ethics, examine how these assumptions differ from those of Heathens in the past, and discuss what all this could mean for Heathens and Pagans who are wrestling with how best to live in our complex, sometimes contradictory, always challenging world.

A Can of Wyrms: Serpents and Dragons in Norse Thought

In Old Norse literature, snakes and dragons (which were both considered “serpents”) are usually portrayed as malevolent, monstrous, or even demonic. Hints from archaeology and folklore, however, suggest that serpents could also be connected with wisdom, protection, and feminine power. We will jump into this pit of vipers, examine various sources that reflect medieval thought about serpents, and consider what all this might mean for us today.

Sacred Geometry – Redux

Since creating this class several years ago, the scientific world has gone through a revolution of ideas and experiments that suggest “Sacred Geometry” plays a much stronger role in creating reality than we had previously thought. This updated session will introduce the ancient magi and philosophers who first used geometry to communicate with the Divine and includes new scientific findings that can support your own journey of contemplation and self-discovery. We'll explore how to create a spiritual relationship with the world of forms and how to use sacred geometry as a spiritual language. PowerPoint presentation and handouts.

In this presentation Doctor Beverley will share rootwork prescriptions for sexual attraction, romantic love, and placing “a glamour” on oneself to bring new love, new friends, and exciting romance into your life. Learn spells to attract Mr. Right (or Ms. Right Now). Whether you want to meet new lovers or find your Soulmate, or merely wow the crowds and influence people, this presentation has something for everyone. Whether you desire a fling, a marriage, or to be undeniably & magically attractive, this class is for YOU.

Rootwork & Rituals for Resistance: Magic for Social Justice & Liberation

Beverley Smith, also known as Doctor Beverley, will discuss the role of Rootwork and Conjure in terms of social and racial justice. We begin by affirming that we aren't yet completely free...not yet, not until we ALL are free. We will discuss liberation work in its historical context, originating with an enslaved people trying to survive dire circumstances in a foreign land. We will look at modern-day rootwork as a means of community support, survival, and healing. Practical solutions for “being free” at home, at work, and in the world will be taught.

The Ancient Egyptian Self

Like most cultures the ancient Egyptians believed that the 'self' has many parts or aspects. We will examine their concept of the self and its role in both life and the afterlife. This will include looking at each of the pieces of the self and how they interact with each other and the forces around them. We will also compare the ancient Egyptian concepts to some of the more common ways Western Occultism divides the parts of self and, hopefully, expand both our understanding of and workings with The Self.

A Ritual To Empower The Magickal Self

We live in a time where the ideas, philosophies, beliefs, and faith of those that walk the Earth Spirituality paths are discouraged and dismissed. The energetic atmosphere that surrounds us always is anti-magick, and we must work all the harder to pursue our spiritual, magickal, and religious paths. We are not without aid and Allies. In this ritual, we will travel to the Spiral Castle of Arianrhod, Star Goddess, to seek her aid in empowering ourself as the magickal person which is the birthright of each of us.

The Sacred And The Profane

Within many branches of Esoteric practice there is a paradox: all the world is sacred versus the need to create sacred space. In this workshop we will explore the nature of the sacred and the profane and how this dichotomy can be useful in understanding what is meant by 'sacred space' and its numerous external and internal manifestations. There will be an exploration of other concepts common in Paganism, such as the Spark of the Divine, the supernatural, and others.

Witchcraft, the Grimoires, and a Living Spirit Tradition

European magic did not die out and experience a rebirth as is often put forth, rather it shifted and adapted to changing social circumstances. With these shifts there are elements we have lost, which can often be seen vibrantly in non-European traditions. Historical examples of witchcraft and formalized spirit work provide us with many clues towards a what living spirit tradition of European magic could look like. In this class we will look at our history to paint a possible image of the future of European traditional magic.

From Goddess to Grail: Reclaiming the Quest for Sovereignty

One of Western Tradition's most evocative tales is the Search for the Holy Grail, that sacred vessel which will heal the Wounded King and restore the fallow land to bountiful abundance. But what is the true nature of this quest, and what wisdom does it hold for the spiritual seeker of today? Together, we will trace the evolution of the Grail Quest back to its origins, and examine its connection to the rites of kingship in Celtic traditions. We will compare the types of Sovereignty figures appearing in Irish, Welsh, and Arthurian legends, and discuss the importance of being in right relationship with the Lady of Sovereignty. Finally, we will consider ways to reclaim the Vessel of Transformation, so that we may work to revive the Wasteland – both within and around us.

Fire in the Head: Igniting the Spark of Awen in our Lives

In Welsh tradition, the gift of Awen, or Divine Inspiration, was obtained from the Cauldron of Cerridwen – She who is Goddess and Muse. Bards sought the Awen to illuminate their art, birth forth poetic prophecy, and ignite their spirits with the transformational fires of wisdom. In this workshop, we will discuss the history and lore of the Awen, explore the symbol of the Three Rays /|\, and work with several techniques – both ancient and modern – used to connect with the Source of Awen and prepare the vessel of the self to experience its soul-changing power.

The Universal Temple of Spirits (SSF)

Global Ritual for the Spirits of Unity

In this open circle, The Universal Temple of Spirits presents a service for the Spirits of Unity, honoring them in their manifestations through drumming, dance, song, and art. The service will begin with a sung litany prayer to set the space. All are welcome to join. And then the drums start. The singing and dancing continues throughout, and we call our Spirits into ourselves to share our celebration. This is an open circle; you may join late or leave early (although you'll probably miss some good stuff if you do). It is a Pantheistic working, so we will honor Spirits from around the globe and will sing in their native languages when possible. The more active your participation, the more exciting the service, so... Please bring: A manifestation of a Spirit you wish to honor; a song for them, if you have one; a design for them, as we will all be drawing for our individual Spirits; and drums and altar objects, if you have them. You may wish to dress in the colors of the Spirit you'll be honoring.

Please note: This is not an open drum circle; it is a possession-based working.

Time Perspectives

We are on time, just in time, or have run out of time. Often we are pressed for time and race against time because there is no time to lose. Or we make good time, have all the time in the world, save time, discover spare time, or have time to kill, so we take our time. Some want to turn back the hands of time. Time is integral to our daily lives, but what exactly is it? What is timelessness vs. earth time or cosmological time? How does time affect our spiritual lives and works? Culture, language, religion, principles, and science influence humanity's understanding and experience of time. Our history is alive with magickal stories of time alterations that change outcomes. Pantheons have deities and sacred rites that directly connect time with acts of creation, preservation, and destruction. Most of us have experienced moments when time inexplicably contracts or expands. We use breath, meditation, and ritual to create a liminal space in which time is changed and the veils thin. Yet, most experience time as something that happens to which we react. We do not see time as something we can affect, resulting in a change of consciousness, awareness, and outcome. This class provides information and technique to create a new perspective on time and its field of possibilities.

Who's Your Time Lord:

The God or Goddess of Your Year

(Bring your chart if you can)

An astrology chart maps the planets in their journey around the Sun on the day you born. The chart is segmented into 12 house sectors which indicate specific areas of life. Dig deeper into your natal chart and learn when specific planets and house topics are activated to draw out the full potential of your natal placements. The sign of the zodiac rising on the horizon at the moment of birth is akin to the helm or prow of a ship. The ruler of the Ascendant is known as the Helmsman, literally the one at the wheel of your life, guiding the vessel of your humanity. At each year of life, a different planetary Time Lord will be awakened to take the helm, according to the Hellenistic technique of Annual Profecions. The term Chronocrator is a transliteration of a Greek term that refers to the planet activated as a Time Lord in a natal chart for a span of time. In this workshop we will activate the Chronocrators and use 20/20 hindsight to create foresight for your immediate future. If we have time, we will look at the Annual Solar Return and evaluate how the Time Lord in charge navigates to unfold the natal promise.

Depression, the Ancestral Gift

The mental state typically called "depression" has been referenced in writings dating back at least 25 centuries; struggling with the condition is nothing new. There is no question that our ancestors were touched by depression, and emerging research hints at the evolutionary role that it plays in humanity. This workshop will be focused on the wisdom of our collective ancestors when it comes to understanding and engaging with depression. Participants will draw insights from guided meditation and personal experience of ancestor veneration into the the presence of depression in their own family trees, as well as in their communities. Ideally, they will be able to identify an ancestor who is willing to serve as a mediator with the spirit of depression.

Like many organizations and individuals the Covid-19 Pandemic had a direct impact on the New Alexandrian Library. Out of an abundance of caution the Board Of Trustees of the Assembly of the Sacred Wheel decided to close the Library to both visitors and volunteers for a time. It was not a decision made lightly and the focus was on the health and wellbeing of the community.

Now is the time for reopening! And while Covid-19 is still with us the NAL is opening its door to visitors once again. It is time to continue the work of the Library's vision.

So join us once again and make an appointment to come and visit the Library. Go to www.newalexandrianlibrary.org and click on the link to reserve your time. Peruse the catalog and subscribe to our newsletter. The ASW looks forward to seeing you.

At this this time we are especially in need of volunteers at the library for a wide range of tasks. Donations to the NAL are tax-deductible.

Peg Wilsbach

Peg Wilsbach: As a member of the order of the Gryphons, in the Assembly of the Sacred Wheel, I serve to energetically protect the ASW and its members. I am a first degree initiate in the ASW and have a special interest in magickal and personal energy management. In rituals with my Coven, the Coven of the Mystic Path, I am often a Herald, one who observes, monitors, and directs the energies raised by the ritual and by the participants. I help guide and direct people through the steps of the ritual. I also work with people in aspect to support them and serve as an anchor so they can find their way back, at the end of ritual. I feel affinity with fire (Sun in Leo) and I aim to bring light, humor, fire, and warmth to all I do. As a clinical social worker, I work with families and individuals to help them achieve their highest potential. My motto is: Is it self-loving and life-affirming?

Ralph Young

Ralph Young (they/he) is one of the Ziewern for the Distelfink Sippschaft of Urglaawe, and the host of Holle's Haven: the Uglawisch Podcast. They are a certified Death

Midwife, an apprentice Braucher/Hex, and study herbalism in their copious amounts of spare time. Deeply connected to the land where they reside, a good deal of their personal practice revolves around food preservation as a sacred act.

Thealandrah

Thealandrah is a pagan priestess drawn to the archetypal energies of the Ancient Egyptian pantheon who once participated in a private evening ritual in the Great Pyramid of Giza. She has been a member of Light Haven, a contacted mystery school in North Carolina, studying with Aeptha since its inception, 30 years ago. Initiated into the Solomonic tradition by Shakhmah Winddrum and Aeptha, she is now an adept, Mahceptress and High Priestess of the lodge. In this role she teaches, mentors, does ritual work and provides sanctuary guardianship including magickal tool creation and care. She is the lodge historian and record keeper. Thealandrah is a panpsychist, mystic, ceremonialist, and artist privileged to live in the mountains among tree friends and that guy she's been joyously traipsing through time with, Abbathoniah. She is happiest when creating and following her curiosity.

Maria Wander

Maria Wander is an Initiate within the Assembly of the Sacred Wheel Tradition and serves as acting High Priestess to coven Order of the World Tree within the ASW. She holds a Masters in Public Administration, received training as a Nurse Practitioner at University of Medicine & Dentistry NJ, certification in Bio Medical Informatics at Columbia University and certification in Herbalism at TwinStar Herbal. She is completing her doctoral study and teaches Informatics as faculty at Hunter College City University of New York. A Bronx based professional astrologer, Maria is a Director at the National Council of Geocosmic Research and co-organizer of NYC Astrology Meetup, the largest not for profit astrology group in the Northeast. She recognizes that the Universe is alive and communicates through the creative intelligence of patterns and cycles. In addition to consulting for clients, Maria teaches classes, workshops and holds group studies online. Through understanding patterns, Maria finds it is within our power to thrive joyfully, intentionally, and purposefully, contributing to a needed shift in global consciousness. To relax, Maria reads Tarot de Marseilles, Lenormand oracle cards, designs home textiles and hand knits as a consultant for Williams Sonoma/West Elm, creates herbal/gem tinctures and flower essences for Amityville Apothecary and keeps honeybees. www.mariawander.com

Laura Tempest Zakroff

Laura Tempest Zakroff is a professional artist, author, dancer, designer, and Modern Traditional Witch based in New England. She holds a BFA from RISD

(The Rhode Island School of Design) and her artwork has received awards and honors worldwide. Her work embodies myth and the esoteric through her drawings and paintings, jewelry, talismans, and other designs. Laura is the author of the best-selling Anatomy of a Witch, Weave the Liminal and Sigil Witchery, as well as The Witch's Cauldron, and the co-author of The Witch's Altar. Her first oracle deck, The Liminal Spirits Oracle, was released in June of 2020 and has been receiving much critical acclaim, including a 2021 Silver COVR award for best divination product. She helps facilitate social change at the grassroot through wearearadia.org. Laura edited The New Aradia: A Witch's Handbook to Magical Resistance (Revelore Press) which was released in 2018 and features work from over two dozen magical practitioners. You can find an extensive collection of sigils for change – many of which were co-created with her Sigil Witchery workshop students – on her Patheos blog. www.lauratempestzakroff.com

The Art of Helena Domenic

Featuring original art, prints, greeting cards, Tarot and oracle decks, and one-of-a-kind amulets.

The Art of Jennifer Davies-Reazor

As a sculptor and jeweler, Jenny creates ceramic tiles inspired by myth, magic, and folklore. Her mixed-media jewelry pieces are created with meaning and intention, incorporating beads, gems, metal, and clay.

Black Cats & Company

Black Cats & Company (Melanie Widmer) has been a labor of love for me for over a decade. I have two main goals when designing pieces: mixing colors and elements in ways that enhance the natural beauty of the stones, and creating versatile pieces that are worn often and are enjoyed. I focus on high-quality and unusual stones, blended together in unexpected ways that complement the natural variations of the materials. Every piece is an original, using unique shapes and hand-carved pendants, many in the shape of animals. Designs are made to harmonize with everything from a white T-shirt to a favorite power suit or little black dress. I also create custom meditation strands/prayer beads and teach a class on them.

Distelfink Sippschaft

Distelfink Sippschaft is the largest and oldest of the Urglaawe kindreds and freeholds. We produce and sell Urglaawe religious and spiritual materials (books, ritual tools, Sickles, meditation beads, deity-related artwork, etc.) and Pennsylvania Dutch cultural items (clothing items, greeting cards, posters, and more). Please visit our table and/or chat with us throughout the conference!

Life and Death Arts

Life and Death Arts are the sacred arts and services offered by Shannon Humm. Shannon is a death doula and mixed media artist. She specializes in hand dyed and batiked silk scarves and veils as well as mixed media sacred art, jewelry, and accessories. You can find her work on Instagram @lifeanddeatharts

Mythospheria

Mythospheria offers unique and unusual hand-crafted ritual and divination tools. Our products are carefully crafted from ethically sourced wood, stone, and other natural materials, sourced from the land of Britain or the wilds of New Hampshire. We offer stunning ritual jewelry, incense, unusual spell supplies, and prints of our photography. All products are handmade by Raven and Chelidon, Witches of many years of experience, who delight in offering their work to others. Sacred Space is our only face-to-face vending event each year; the rest of the year, our craftwork may be found at etsy.com/shop/mythospheria and our photography and teaching at worldtreelyceum.org. Contact: chelidon@mythospheria.com.

New Alexandrian Library Store

This is a fundraising table for the NAL/ The New Alexandrian Library which is a research and lending library located near Georgetown, Delaware. We have a special focus on the preservation of materials from the Pagan, Polytheist, and Western Mystery Traditions.

Nine Ravens Studio

Through paint and pixels, Angela Raincatcher creates living portals of communication between the spiritual and physical worlds. She listens to the spirits and creates artwork, prayers, and rituals to give them physical expression to aid in the spiritual healing, evolution, and transformation of our individual and communal souls. Nine Ravens Studio.

Owlkeyme Arts

Myth-inspired artwork and design by artist and author Laura Tempest Zakroff, music by Nathaniel Johnstone.

Purring Banshee Studios

Spirit jewelry from many pantheons. Beaded spiritual ornaments. Pottery. Vocal music. Pride necklaces. Seasonal color analysis jewelry. And other things that strike fancy. All handmade by sole proprietor priestess in the USA. Custom work is welcomed.

Tempered Raven

We at Tempered Raven believe that a custom blade is more than a pretty display piece—it is a tool. Each piece we craft, whether hand-crafted or hand-forged, serves a purpose for its owner, and much like any other tool, whether practical or ceremonial, it should be reliable and long lasting, an heirloom passed from one generation to the next. This is why we pour our sweat and tears (and sometimes blood) into each blade until it is hardened and tempered for use and abuse. Just because our blades are tools doesn't mean that they should not look beautiful, which is why we focus our attention on details like handle material, pins, stippling, or the trueness of each blade. Only by remaining dedicated to the purpose of each piece do we remain true to our craft.

A Touch of Glass

At "A Touch of Glass...and then some," you'll find gods, goddesses, faeries, green folk, dragons, gargoyles, unicorns, and runes, to name a few, handcrafted in stained glass and fused glass. Custom work and new ideas are always welcome. Add to the mix flaxseed-filled aromatherapy bags suitable for microwave or freezer, along with handcrafted soap and incense. But that's not all! We also proudly offer a selection of unique handcrafted bronze pendants and wood carvings from artisans in Russia and Ukraine. And if that's not enough, we have hand-batiked flags, banners, and altar cloths, a few of which are our own custom designs, as well as an array of battery-operated lighting gadgets. Visit us at atouchofglassand.com.

Unclaimed Treasures

Unclaimed Treasures is a unique collection featuring handcrafted jewelry and accessories inspired by nature, as well as fantastical oddities and curiosities preserving the natural beauty of the world around us. From animal bones to tree burls, owner and designer Shannon M. creates one-of-a-kind pieces that will dazzle and inspire.

Valley of Gems

The Valley of Gems is a husband and wife partnership. Shahid is a master gem-cutter as his fathers have been before him through many generations. Shahid loves and understands each stone and designs every individual piece of jewelry to allow the stones to express their own unique beauty, not an ephemeral standard of fashion. This is the quality that sets Valley of Gems apart from so many others and why no one piece is like any other. Kathy Rogers: valleygems@aol.com.

Wizards Tower

We are Artisans and Purveyors of unique, high-quality essentials for working magic: clothing, jewelry, magic wands, and accessories. Kevin and Jim have been serving the needs of the community for 15 years. We are specialists to intermediate and advanced magical and ritual practitioners. Kevin makes hand-carved wooden spoons and other treenware, magic wands, and other specialty wood products; and Jim makes four styles of capes, Tarot card/sacred object bags and messenger bags, altar cloths, ritual shawls and stoles, drawstring pants, wizard/witches robes, traveling cloaks, and three styles of ceremonial vests. Jim specializes in garb and ritual garments for men. Both men also create a line of unique Celtic/Wiccan/Pagan jewelry.

The vendors are on the Lower Level in Salons B, C, D, E, F and will open on Friday morning and close early afternoon on Sunday.

Healers

These are four healers that will be offering their services in the Derby and Belmont on the Lobby Level by appointment. Schedule your appointment early in the conference as slots are limited.

Bodywork by Byll: Relax and Unwind

Having a hard time letting go?
Trying to trust the process but worried about the outcome? You are not alone! Working with fascia, the connective tissue of the body, Byll Monahan treats at the source located in our muscle memory. Soften your COVID body! Hands-on contact and energy work combine in this Myofascial Release Treatment. Learn about the John F Barnes PT approach where “The key to healing is feeling!” Reiki trained; Prenatal and Oncology clients welcomed! Be at home in your body, break down your holding patterns, release trauma and FEEL something again!

Cardinal Catalysts

Blending trauma physiology with the technologies of magic, we offer Somatic Experiencing: supporting the gentle release of traumatic imprints from the nervous system and increasing the body’s capacity for ease, safety, and joy. This approach supports full embodiment and connection with curiosity and playfulness. The repair of boundary ruptures, past injuries, and intergenerational patterns often emerges in our work. In honor of these themes, touch-focused work is negotiated and always optional. When needed, we create a safe container to explore Shadow and aspects of self, with guided archetypal imagery and Reiki available to further support integration within the session, if desired.
